The Players -- Jared Johnson is (or will soon be) at 1548 Rochelle Drive, Chamblee, Georgia, 30005. Also we have just received from Dick Reiter an official Col: %Lt. Col. G.C. Reiter, HQ 2nd Wea Wing, CMR Box 166, APO NY, 09332. ##### Dick indicates he would like to resume his Diplomacy activity, having just had a case of too much to do and too little time in which to do it. However, Dick has just been replaced in all games in this issue. So, we'll put it this way -- Dick, if you are interested in continuing in any of the games in which you have been replaced in this issue, please write to the person(s) who replaced you. If they agree (and we're almost certain they will -- this has happened in the past, and the R.P. gracefully stood aside for the original player to resume his position), please let us know and we'll put you back in. O.K.? Sorry, but your letter came just a day too late, as we typed all of the moves yesterday....

Replacement Players -- DBB: Phillips; DCA: _____; DDD: Phillips; DFF: Phillips; FMH: Dean, Phillips; FOH: Gemignani, Phillips; SAA: Phillips; SBB: Phillips; SCC: Pulsipher, Phillips; SEE: St.Cyr, Phillips. The House-Rules -- As published in DIPLOMANIA #26. These are mandatory.

New Games -- In DIPLOPHOBIA, we have tentatively opened Regular game QFC. Send no money yet -- as soon as four persons have stated an interest in QFC, we will ask for money. In HYDROPHOBIA, Variant game FNI (Scotice Scripti; rules and map, revised from those which originally appeared in LOMOKOME, were printed in DIPLOMANIA #28; additional set of rules & map will be distributed to players when game begins (six on roster now; only two more needed -- if you're Irish, Scotch, Welsh, or a kindred spirit, you should be in FNI....); game-fee for FNI is $5 (with $1 off if G.B. Regular member for 1970, another $1 off if already playing in game in HPBA, and another 50¢ off if current member of IFW) -- payable at time of application. In THE EXCHANGE, "Stock Market" Bourse QEC, QFC Bourse, and a Bourse around the entire "Q" series of games are now open (all free if you already receive DPBA (as a player, subber, or trader) -- rules in DIPLOMANIA #30 (summarized on pg. 8 of thish of HPBa if room permits) (if interested, and you don't receive DPMA, send 35¢ (30¢ if G.B. Regular member) for a copy -- or just send a 6¢ stamp for the extracted rules). In AUX ARMES!, replacements needed for JAPAN and for future drop-outs; also needed are new "Off-Board" nations and revolutionaries (in Hypereconomic Dippy) (all pos. $1, plus sub. to A-A! if desired). And there is also Paratime I ($5, with no discounts). And replacement players are always needed (free if you already get 'zine) in all 'zines.

The Players -- Lewis Pulsipher, Pls. send HRIVE/COIRE, 3003 orders for MORDOR (Dick Reiter), in case Dick misses again. Dick, if you wish to remain in game, you must have your orders in by April 28. And thanks, Lewis, for sending Q'03 orders for ARNOR -- but Bill Linden's moves finally arrived (mailed Apr. 2, but held up by aftermath of Postal Strike, and not rec'd by GM until April 11).

Propaganda --

Bree (20 Mede 1704) -- Sauron has stooped to the most dastardly tricks; he prevented orders from reaching the White Berets by provoking a strike in the Shire Post! Let the mountains teem with orcs, trolls, and creatures unmentionable; let the forests tremble with fear of HIS might; let the rivers run with the blood of dwarves, men, and elves; let the shrines of the West be desecrated; let all cringe in abject FEAR; for evil hath been renewed. MORGOTH hath returned. So it is. So shall it be.GM Note -- QUELLE, 3003 moves were published in FANTASIA #38, and distributed to the FMH players separately from HYDROPHOBIA. HPBA readers will find F#38 either in or attached to this issue. ### Also note that method of move notation in FMH is different from that in FOH. Please vote on the following by May 19: (1) Which notation do you prefer -- that for FMH, or that for FOH? (2) Will you agree to drop names of units from usage in publication of moves? (Note that two MORDOR units which count two on defense have been designated by "MA", so names are not necessary to distinguish them any longer. Also note that names can still be assigned to units when built and removed, and players can use them in their propaganda, keeping track of their own units, if they wish. Dropping names would greatly simplify both play and recording -- and, as Lewis Pulsipher states in FOH, it is not names which should be used to derive a proper Middle-Earth atmosphere, but propaganda. Drop the names, and spend your energies on writing good press releases....)Deadline for TUILLE, 3004 moves and votes -- Noon, Tues., May 19.FOH (Mordor-Versus-the-World IV $\frac{1}{2}$ ) -- MORDOR SHATTERS GONDOR, STALEMATES RHOVANION,

Propaganda --

Esgaroth -- Names of units are not a viable method of creating a Middle-Earth atmosphere. Instead, we have 3rd Orc, 4th Orc, 4th SS Panzer, etc. I suggest that a better way to create this atmosphere is through propaganda -- not press releases like the junk we've been getting, but something like what I have tried to do, however unsuccessfully, in FMH. Those of you who read "The Last Days of Middle-Earth", recently reprinted in DIPLOMANIA, should know what I mean. This is primarily MORDOR's responsibility. I suggest that we take another vote and get rid of unit designations, and use the time saved to write some good propaganda.

GM Notes -- Hear, hear! So let's everyone please vote on the following, by May 19: (1) Which type of notation do you prefer -- that for FMH, or that for FOH? (Note that the two are different.) (2) Will you agree to drop names of units from usage in publication of moves? (Note that two MORDOR units which count two on defense have been designated "MA", so names are not necessary to distinguish them any longer. Also note that names can still be assigned to units when built and removed, and players can use them in their propaganda, keeping track of their own units, if they wish. Dropping names would greatly simplify both play and recording....) #### To "NSG" -- Yes, the rules as written would allow what you state as a possibility -- but we won't, and are by nextish going to put forth a revision to plug this loophole.

Propaganda (revisited) --

New Bourses -- Not as much room as we has planned, so will not be able to summarize rules -- but let us state that they are completely unlike any Bourses being run so far, and should be a lot of fun.

Errors in HPBA #15 -- In DBB, under moves for ITA, chg. "A Ven (S) F Tri" to "A Ven (S) A Tri", and "F Adr (S) F Tri" to "F Adr (S) A Tri". And in SBB, delete "Bud/Vie" from list of separations at end of W'09; this separation has been removed.
